

MetaTars

ORIGIN STORY

The MetaTars landed on planet earth, Jan 1st, 1983. They are powerful humanoid and guardians of the MetaVerse. Protecting against Cyber Invaders, when used as avatars... Invaders, Hacks and Creeps cannot penetrate the Meta forcefield.

Lord Zar from the Noah-1 Galaxy is building an army with unique abilities to annihilate all MetaTars. Collecting 5 different colored faces, 2 StarTar's or ShadowTars from the Genesis collection unlocks a free UltraTar coming soon from the Exodus collection.

UltraTars have 5x PowerUp than Meta's and have the skills to combat the army of Lord Zar and his Hacks.

BACK STORY

Growing up in the ghetto of Baltimore, Maryland with a single mother raising 8 children, having big dreams was just that a dream. Aspiration of being an artist was unheard of. Having a supportive foundation is one of the most important keys to success. My mother was the manifestation of support. When I told her I wanted to be an artist, we couldn't even afford the paper to write on. She said, "write on the walls. We're getting evicted, anyway".

So I started my art career. Didn't matter what I wanted to do, she supported it.

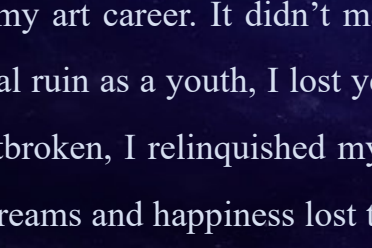

After years of creating original art, sketches and portraits, because of financial ruin, I lost all of my artwork to a storage unit auction in Baltimore. Heartbroken, I gave up my passion for art after a 2 decade- long hiatus.

After seeing so many other dreams and happiness lost to COVID, I made a promise to myself that in 2022 I'd finally revisit my first love. Art!

I kept that promise to myself, locked in and created 666 unique, alien-like humanoids. I named them MetaTars. An exclusive collection of avatars designed to champion creativity in the Metaverse.

The second drop will be "The Exodus Collection" and they will be called UltraTars.

Anyone who collects all 5 colored faces of MetaTars or if they collect 2 StarTars (the platinum ones) or 2 ShadowTars (the midnight black) then they unlock a free UltraTar when the Exodus collection is released.

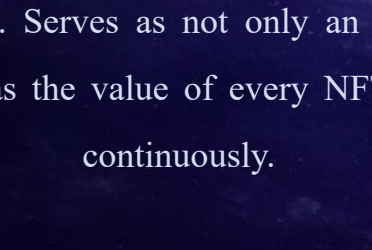

"DeStorm Power's "MetaTars" Collectibles aims to bridge the gap between the Metaverse and the natural world by launching a utility-based initiative that focuses on forming a community of like-minded people interested in business, creativity, art, food, marketing, ideas, entrepreneurship, and innovation. The future of Power beyond that will be up to the holders and followers of our campaign."

MetaTars Genesis is a collection of 666 alien-like humanoids created by DeStorm Power. The Genesis collection name is derived from the premier release of the MetaTars collectables. This is only the beginning - there is much more to come.

DeStorm's MetaTars - the powerful guardians of the Metaverse - bridge the gap between the digital world and the physical. Through the collection, DeStorm wants to show his supporters the many ways the Metaverse and his NFTs can create positive change in the world.

It didn't matter what I wanted to do. She supported it. Because of financial ruin as a youth, I lost years of my artwork to a storage unit auction in Baltimore. Heartbroken, I relinquished my passion for art for 2 decades. After seeing so many people's dreams and happiness lost to COVID, I made a promise to myself that in 2022 I'd finally revisit my first love. Art!

I kept that promise to myself. I locked in and created 666 very unique, alien-like humanoids: the MetaTars. An exclusive, limited collection of avatars designed to champion creativity in the Metaverse.

The MetaTars collection is titled "Genesis," as it is the birth of my creative passion and the introduction of so much more to come.

I am an avid supporter of digitalization and the existence of individuality in a digital world. These MetaTars are very special to me, as they allow the public to learn more about my artistic and creative talents in a new way. The MetaTars not only showcase my passion for the Metaverse, but how I can extend positivity to my supporters.

NFTs are on their way to becoming the currency of the metaverse. They make it possible for users to provide proof of ownership of anything in the metaverse that might be considered a deed to virtual property. NFTs are already the ones to carry out this deed.

The Metaverse is a truly groundbreaking and one-of-a-kind way to improve both digital and physical experiences. Therefore understanding how it will function and the importance of NFTs is critical for marketers and brand leaders.

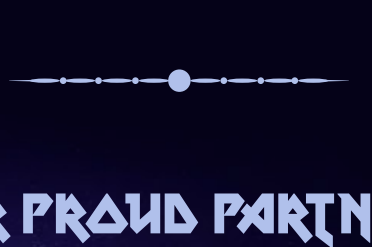

The MetaTars will also benefit buyers who plan to mint their NFT, as they will own each specific NFT they are minting. Serves as not only an acquisition of property in the metaverse, but an investment as the value of every NFT increases and can be traded continuously.

In the coming years, the metaverse will be a mainstream. How it will benefit everyone, and how DeStorm is achieving this for himself in the metaverse's early days. As an independent artist, he wants his audience to learn about everything he does, and he wants them to grow together with him. Early users who join his Discord channel and invite their friends to join will be eligible for giveaways. Buyers who contribute content or bring in new followers will be rewarded with unexpected prizes. Be prepared to tune in to the channel and win fantastic gifts.
